Dear Frank:

I appreciate very much the continued support you have given the Executive Seminar, in particular, as well as other programs of the Office of Training and Education.

Your assistance has been invaluable in providing the program with first-rate speakers from private industry and academia. In developing our Senior Intelligence Officers it is critical they have the opportunity to interact with leaders in other organizations.

Thank you for the time and effort in support of our programs. I look forward to the continuation of our association.

Sincerely,

Director of Training and Education
